Bylaws of the Local Emergency Planning Committee (LEPC) of Chatham County (revised May 2015)

ARTICLE I: NAME

The Chatham County Emergency Planning Committee, hereinafter referred to as the "LEPC," is a local entity created pursuant to SARA Title III, the Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know act of 1986.

ARTICLE II: PURPOSE AND FUNCTION

The LEPC shall exist to promote and facilitate the safety of all persons in Chatham County with respect to the potential exposure and or threat of major emergencies and disasters both natural and manmade.

The functions and duties of the LEPC are those authorized by the Chatham County Board of Commissioner, in accordance with, but not necessarily limited to the provisions of Title III of the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act of 1986. More specifically the LEPC shall engage in at least the following activities:

1. Conduct regular meetings to address all pertinent issues
2. Maintain a county-wide master inventory of hazardous materials regulated by State & Federal governments as regulated by SARA Title III.
3. Develop and update a Hazardous Material Emergency Response Plan as defined by SARA Title III, Section 303 [42 U.S.C. 11003] Comprehensive Emergency Response Plans.
4. Identify private/public sector resources available to assist with hazardous material emergencies.
5. Review, process and respond to public requests of information.
6. Review, maintain and process all appropriate reports and records, as required by law.
7. Provide information on training programs related to hazardous material safety and emergency response procedures.
8. Coordinate emergency response exercises.
9. Provide subject matter expertise and assistance to industries and business upon request.
10. Provide community "out-reach" services on all hazards safety.
11. Research and disseminate emerging legislation relating to hazardous materials.

It is not and never has been the intent of the LEPC to be a local regulatory, enforcement, permitting, or policy making body or agency. Further, the LEPC shall not be placed in a position to interfere with the permitting process of the State of Georgia.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP

Section 1     Number: The LEPC shall consist of as many Member Agencies as deemed necessary by the Chatham County Board of Commissioners, the Georgia Emergency Response Commission and SARA Title III requirements.

Section 2     Categories: There shall be two categories of membership, Mandated Agencies and Member Agencies.

Mandated Agencies: Those Agencies required by Federal law to have membership status on the LEPC (SARA Title III, Part 301, Section C)

Chatham County Mandated Agencies are:

- Volunteer Organizations Active in Disasters.

Section 3     Representation: Each mandated and Member Agency shall appoint a Full Voting Representative and at least one Associate Representatives to act on the behalf of the Agency while serving on the LEPC.

Full Voting Representative: The Mandated and Member Agency shall appoint one Full Voting Representative to speak and vote for the Agency. This appointment shall be made in writing to the LEPC Chairperson at the time the Agency requests membership or anytime the assigned Full Voting Representative is no longer able to serve in that capacity.

Associate Representative: The mandated or Member Agency shall appoint no more than two Associate Representatives to serve on the LEPC. The Associate Representative(s) serves in the absences of the Full Voting Representative. This appointment shall be made in writing to the LEPC Chairperson at the time the Agency requests membership or anytime the assigned Associate Representative(s) are no longer able to serve in that capacity.

Section 4 Term: The term of membership in the LEPC shall be continuous from year to year.

Section 5 Assignment: Full Voting Representatives of each Mandated and Member Agency shall select at least one LEPC sub-committee to serve. If a sub-committee is not selected by the representative, then they shall be assigned to a sub-committee. Associate Representatives shall serve on the same subcommittee and act in the absence of the Full Voting Representative.

Section 6 Removal: Each LEPC Member Agency serves at the discretion of the Chatham County Board of Commissioners. Member Agencies, Full Voting Representatives and Associate Representatives may be removed from membership by a vote of the LEPC during a regularly scheduled or a special called meeting of the LEPC body. Member Agencies who are not represented at three LEPC meetings during a calendar year may be removed from membership.

ARTICLE IV: SUBCOMMITTEES (REQUIRED)

Identification of Committees and Appointments / Resignations

The Sub-Committees are seven (7) in number and are identified as the Executive Committee, By-Laws/Steering Committee, Grants and Finance Committee, Training and Exercise Committee, Emergency Response Committee, Outreach Committee and Support and Development Committee.

Subcommittees shall be created by vote of the LEPC whenever necessary. For each term cycle, or the creation of a new subcommittee, the Chairperson shall appoint each subcommittee chairperson and give objectives for the subcommittee within thirty (30) days.

Ad-hoc committees may be formed at any time for special purposes or assignments. Ad-hoc subcommittees shall cease to function when their specific task is completed.

Section 1 Committee Definitions:

1.1 Executive Subcommittee will comprise of the Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, Secretary and Treasurer. Each member of the Executive Committee must be a Full Voting Representative of a Mandated or Member Agency in good standing. Due to fiscal accounting, the Treasurer functions will be performed by the Chatham Emergency Management Agency. This position serves in a supportive capacity to the Executive Committee. The Treasurer will maintain and oversee all financial records for the LEPC and shall ensure appropriate signature authority is processed for legal and financial institutions. Service in this position does not preclude the Chatham Emergency management Agency from serving in any other capacity necessary to support the LEPC. The LEPC Committee and Committee Chair will determine goals and duties of Sub-Committees.

1.1.1 Term: The term of office for each Executive Committee officer shall be two calendar years. Each term begins on July 1 of each odd numbered calendar year and continues through June 30 of the next odd numbered calendar year.

1.1.2 Election: Two meetings prior to the end of a current term cycle, the LEPC shall appoint three persons to the Nominating Committee with a charter to select persons interested in serving as an officer on the Executive Committee for the upcoming term.

One meeting prior to the end of the current term cycle, the Nominating Committee will present proposed nominations to the LEPC body for consideration. Each proposed nominee shall develop a one page fact sheet on their background for distribution to the LEPC body.

Election of the Executive Committee officers shall take place by voting immediately following the roll call at the first meeting of each term cycle. Nominations from the floor shall be offered as required by Robert's Rules of Order.

If a quorum does not exist, the previous term Chairperson shall schedule a special election to select the LEPC Executive Committee.

1.1.3 Removal: An Executive Committee officer may be removed from office at any time by a vote of Mandated and Member Agencies.

1.1.4 Vacancies: A Vice Chair or Secretary vacancy shall be filled as soon as possible through a special election or the next regularly scheduled meeting. The selected candidate shall serve the remainder of the term cycle in which they were elected.

1.1.5 Eligibility: Executive Committee Officers must be Full Voting Representatives of a Mandated or Member Agency. The Agency and the Representative must be in good standing with the LEPC at the time of nomination.

1.2 By-Laws/Steering Committee – is responsible to the review, update and present changes in the By-Laws to the LEPC committee annually for approval.

1.3 Grants and Finance Committee - This committee shall be responsible for preparing and presenting a proposed annual operating budget, formulating a plan to finance the activities of the LEPC through the annual operating budget, overseeing the accounting for and expenditure of the funds of the LEPC, and other matters as may be assigned by the Chairman.

1.4 Training and Exercise Committee – identify training needs for all hazard types and make provisions to satisfy those needs; and to plan, coordinate and conduct training exercises. To conduct one full-scale Hazardous Materials related exercise every other year.

1.5 Emergency Response Committee - will work with the Training and Exercise and the Business Outreach Committees within existing emergency response organizations within the planning district to review and help local emergency management offices develop and test a hazardous substance emergency response plan for the planning district. This Committee shall review existing federal, state and local plans for the purpose of coordination with the LEPC planning process.

1.6 Outreach Committee– To distribute all hazard materials and information to the public including resource support to business on CFR requirements and emergency plan development, ways to recycle and seek long-term environmental improvements. This will include planning and development of all public outreach efforts. This group will annually visit and provide support with all Tier II facilities.

1.7 Support and Development Committee – to develop and support each of the Subcommittees as needed. This group is responsible for all printed materials, any promotional items and communications of events including the maintenance of the LEPC Website.
